To Whom It May Concern,

This letter formally confirms that Royal Data Systems is a current channel partner of Netgate, in good standing. As part of our ongoing relationship, Royal Data Systems is fully authorized to represent, distribute, and support our products and services.

We value the collaboration we have with Royal Data Systems and acknowledge their consistent commitment to maintaining the high standards required by our partnership. Their status as a partner reflects our confidence in their ability to deliver quality service and support to their customers.

Should you have any questions or need further verification of their partnership status with Netgate, please request your reseller/vendor, and we will accommodate you through them.

We appreciate your continued trust in Royal Data Systems and look forward to the continued success of our mutual efforts.

Sincerely,
Scott A. Davis
VP, Service Delivery
